Rep. DelGobbo Achieves 100 Percent Voting Record for Eighth Straight Year in State Legislature

Naugatuck Legislator is Only One of the 151 House Members with Eight-year Perfect Record

NAUGATUCK—For the eighth consecutive year, State Representative Kevin M. DelGobbo (R-70th, Naugatuck) has achieved a perfect 100 percent voting record in the state House of Representatives.

Rep. DelGobbo has not missed a single floor vote since first being elected to represent Naugatuck in 1996, according to statistics compiled by the clerk of the House of Representatives.

He is the only legislator in the 151-member state House of Representatives who has voted on all recorded floor votes during the legislative sessions from 1997 to 2004.

Rep. DelGobbo said, “It is no secret that I truly love the opportunity to represent Naugatuck in the state legislature. I consider it a great honor to work as hard as I can for the people of Naugatuck. I believe it is important to make every effort to vote on each and every piece of legislation in order to best represent the people who sent us to Hartford.”

State Rep. Kevin DelGobbo represents the 70th Assembly District of Naugatuck in the state House of Representatives. He is ranking member of the legislature’s Energy & Technology Committee, as well as a member of the Finance, Revenue and Bonding Committee and the Public Safety Committee.
